JUDGE BOGGS, of Kittanning has made an order that hereafter the attorneys must keep their feet off the tables. THE New Castle city poor house was captured by "tramps" last Sunday morning and run to suit themselves for a while, but on help arriving from the city they all took to the woods but two, who were arrested and taken before a justice of the peace, but were permitted to depart, they not being among the most boisterous ones.

BUTLER county just now presents a formidable array of candidates for the several offices. There are thus far sixty-four Republicans and fifty Democratic announcements to be found in the newspapers; and as the Convention of neither party has yet been called, the presumption is reasonable, that a few more will yet turn up.

THE house and barn of Mr. John Mariell, of Girard township, Clearfield county, were destroyed by fire on Monday, April 5th. THE lawyers of Erie have formed an Erie Bar Association, for the "elevation of character" of its respective members, so the preamble states. A lawyer member drew up the preamble, or we should be inclined to think some wag was trying to impose upon the good name of our professional neighbors. "Elevation," but not of character, generally attends upon bar associations.

Well done old Jackson. Well done, State of Greene.—Waynesburg Republican.

AT THE BOX OFFICE.

How the Tardy Man Who Wants One Seat Dickers Over a Dollar.

The man who always gets a bad seat is a sore trial to the office-keeper. He is a well-known character there. He comes only on state occasions, when there is a grand rush, and he invariably arrives just as the curtain is about to rise. He takes his place in the line, calmly awaits his turn to interview the ticket-man, and never seems to think that anyone else is waiting to be served.

"Have you any good seats, sir," he begins, and then, in rising irritation: "I never had a good seat in your theatre in my life. Where's your map?"

"We don't sell by the diagram at night; only in the daytime, sir."

"Well, where have you got seats?"

"In various places—parquette, dress circle, balcony."

"Have you any about six seats from the orchestra on the aisle, end seat?"

"No, sir, but I can give you a few twelve rows back."

"That's too far."

"Can give you third from the front."

"That's too near. Have you any end seats on the side?"

"No. What have you in the dress circle?"

"Fourth row in the centre."

"Don't want that. What have you on the side?"

"Third row on the side."

"Which end of the row is nearest or farthest from the stage? Any post in the way?"

"I think not, sir."

"Which side is it on?"

"Either side, sir."

"Can you see all the stage?"

"Nearly all of it, sir."

"Which side is the most acting on, and the principal scenes?"

"All about alike, sir."

"How is it in the balcony? Well, I don't like the balcony. But it's just my usual luck. Here, give me the best you have—I'll take one seat."

Meanwhile those in the line are mentally cursing that slow coach of a treasurer, and wondering why the deuce the manager don't discharge him. I am pretty sure some ticket-sellers here will vouch for this as no fancy sketch. And you may be sure if there is a bad seat handy at such a time it will be slipped over to that man. Moral: Be amiable and not over anxious with a treasurer, and he will always do the best he can for you.

The hotel clerk and the railway ticket agents have some queer queries asked them, but give me the theatrical box office for variety.

The Political Troubles Settled.

The Wheeler Compromise Accepted by the Legislature.

A Resolution Adopted to Sustain Gov. Kellogg.

NEW ORLEANS, April 15.—The report of the Committee on Elections, embodying the terms of the award, was adopted in the House by a vote of 89 to 15. Most of the members displaced made speeches, intimating their acquiescence. Mr. Poindexter, of Assumption, one of the colored members ousted by the award, said he had the satisfaction in giving up his seat to know that his old master, who had always been just and kind, would take it. This was an honor which did not occur every day.

The committee, after reciting the preamble and resolutions referred to them, report that, having considered the same, they are of the opinion and report that said R. R. Bearsly, E. F. Dugus, James Brice, J. S. Scales, Chas. Schuler, E. E. Kidd, Jas. Jeffries, R. R. Luckett, G. W. Stafford, E. A. McCollum, W. H. Keys and George A. Kelly are respectively entitled to seats in the House by them respectively claimed from their respective parishes, and that the members now occupying seats in the House, viz.: Jos. Connaughton, Wm. Crawford, Jno. Delacy, of Rapides; Geo. Drury and R. Poindexter, of Assumption; J. J. Johnson and E. E. Tyler, of De Soto; J. Marie and F. R. Wright, of Terrebonne, and Winfield Flood, of Jackson, are not entitled to the seats now held by them.

After the reading of this report, Mr. Drury, one of the unseated members, made an explanation that he desired to be placed on record as concurring in the decision of the Congressional Committee, for the sake of peace and harmony, and expressed the hope that the adjustment would be carried out in good faith.

Mr. Abight made a similar explanation, and expressed a like aspiration for the peace of Louisiana.

The joint resolution recognizing the Kellogg Government, and pledging the members to support the efforts of the Governor in the line of reform and good government, was adopted by the House by a vote of 89 to 18.

The following is the full text of the resolution adopted with regard to the Kellogg Government:

Resolved, By the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, that the said Assembly, without approving the same, will not disturb the present State Government, claiming to have been elected in 1872, known as the Kellogg Government, for any past official acts, and that henceforth we will accord to said Government all necessary and legitimate support in maintaining the laws and in advancing the peace and prosperity of the people of this State, and that the House of Representatives, as to its members as constituted under the award of George F. Hoar, W. A. Wheeler, W. P. Frye, Samuel F. Marshall, Clarkson N. Potter and Wm. Walter Phelps, shall remain without change except by resignation or death of members, until a new general election, and that the Senate, as herein recognized, shall also remain unchanged, except so far as that body shall make changes on contests or call of roll.

In the Senate, Mr. Crosier, colored, of the Terrebonne District, is the only member whose seat is involved in the award. He will be appointed by Governor Kellogg as Wharf-master, and resign his seat in the Senate. Mr. F. S. Goode will be seated in his stead. This will perfect the terms of the award except reorganizing the House, which will be done in a day or two. Wiltz and Estelle are prominently mentioned for Speaker, and some think Hahn will be retained.

Mr. Wheeler left for home to-day. He expresses himself satisfied with the action of all parties as to the award. Good feeling and a spirit of conciliation seem to actuate the members of each party collectively and individually. The compromise may, therefore, be considered as accomplished.

The Beecher Trial Postponed.

Owing to the ill health of Mr. Fullerton and his apprehension that to proceed today with the scandal case would precipitate another attack of vertigo, the further cross-examination of Mr. Beecher was postponed until Monday, until which time the court was adjourned. The crowd struggling for admission to the court room was enormous, and the disappointment great. Bessie Turner was in the court room and received from Mr. Beecher a warm shake of the hands.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Items of Interest to Workers Everywhere.

(From the American Manufacturer.)

THE West Hamburg rolling mill and iron works will soon resume operations.

A FOUNDRY and machine shop is building at Elizabeth, a town a few miles up the Monongahela.

IT IS said the workshops of the Northern Central Railroad Company are to be removed from York, Pa., to Baltimore, Md.

HON. M. S. QUAY, of Beaver, recently made a sale of over two hundred thousand fire brick. His works are on the opposite side of the Ohio.

BOTH the steel and old rail mills at South Bethlehem are in operation. An addition to the mill is being erected. Laborers at the mill receive $1.10 per day.

T. B. WHITE & SONS, of the Penn Bridge and Machine works, New Brighton, have the contract for building an iron bridge over Olean creek, in Olean, N. Y. They get $2,575.

MR. EDGAR COLLINS, formerly manager of one of the Cambria Iron Company's furnaces at Johnstown, Pa., has taken charge of the Roane Iron Company's furnace at Rockwood, Tennessee.

AT Staunton, Va., a party of gentlemen are figuring upon the cost and success of a blast furnace at that place. The ore and limestone are on the spot, but fuel would have to be brought from New river or Kanawha valley, a distance of 170 to 220 miles.

THE proprietors of the Allentown rolling mill have agreed to give their puddlers $4.00 per ton, it is stated, which is 25 cents more than their former offer. We believe this is what the puddlers demanded, but have no knowledge that they have gone to work.

TAKING the furnaces in the Lehigh, Schuylkill and Susquehanna valleys, about 56 are in blast and some 63 out or banked up. The strike of the colliers in the anthracite regions, and the dull state of the iron trade are jointly the cause of this state of affairs in these districts.

SAYS the Wheeling Intelligencer of the 7th: "On Sunday evening the crown of the La Belle glass furnace fell in, damaging the pots to the extent of about $700. The accident will necessitate the suspension of the works for about three weeks. Fortunately, however, there is about $50,000 worth of stock on hands.

FROM 50 to 60 car loads of coke daily are now sent from the Connellsville region to the anthracite region, for the blast furnaces whose stock of anthracite has been used up. The trade may become permanent, as the furnace owners in the eastern part of the State must be getting disgusted with the uncertainty of the price and supply of their accustomed fuel.

SAYS the Wheeling Intelligencer of the 10th: "We understand that a number of capitalists are in correspondence with parties in Charleston with a view to leasing the building now occupied as the capitol, for a watch factory. So that it is more than propable that in a short time the late 'permanent seat' will boast of a watch factory. We presume, however, that like the capital it will soon be removed to Wheeling. It is the intention of the company to manufacture a watch similar to that of the Elgin and Waltham."

TUESDAY of this week Myers' coke works, near Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland county, bought recently at Sheriff's sale by the First National Bank, was sold to John D. Boyle and Samuel Hazlette, of the firm of Boyle & Hazlette, at Mullin's Station for $33,050. It is one of the largest coke works in that section of country, and it is said to have cost upwards of $100,000. The farm contains one hundred acres, and is underlaid with a nine foot vein of coal. The works consist of 100 ovens, twenty shanties, engine, cars, etc.

SAYS the Beaver Democrat: It seems that a number of wells will be put down in the Beaver valley for natural gas. Messrs. Blake & Fessenden intend putting one down for the use of their file works. The owners of the paper mill, at Beaver Falls, intend putting down one also, and it is rumored that a company have leased the wells at Bennett's run, and convey the gas to Beaver Falls, where it will be furnished for fuel. We have understood that this company are by the condition of their lease, compelled to put down another well, with a view to obtaining oil. It has become a well settled opinion of many that the great Butler oil belt passes through that vicinity.

PHILLIPS of Ohio, has sent notice to the managers of the Philadelphia Centennial Exhibition that he will exhibit a mammoth cheese, nine feet in diameter, eight feet in height, and weighing twenty-nine thousand pounds. DR. HARDMAN, of Salem, Ohio, has been sued for slander and breach of promise by a Scotch woman named Jennett Boss Davidson. She estimates the damage to her character and feelings at $20,000. The other day, while thinking over the affair, she became so enraged at the doctor that she procured a revolver and shot three times at the doctor without ever hitting him.

ALBERT BRIGHTON, aged thirteen or fourteen years, jumped on a coal train as it was passing through Lancaster, Tuesday morning, and was ordered off by a brakeman. In attempting to jump from the train the boy slipped and fell across the track, the wheels of the cars passing over him, cutting him completly in two across the waist and severing his left arm at the shoulder. He died almost instantly.

Interview With Blaine.

[From the Washington Chronicle.]

We have good authority for saying that ex-Speaker Blaine does not recognize the "interview" between him and "Gath," as published in the Pittsburgh Dispatch, as authentic. Mr. Blaine has always refused to be "interviewed" by any one as a means of making known his views on public affairs and his opinion on public men, a rule of conduct which he did not depart from in this case. Hence the publication referred to must be regarded as largely a matter of imagination, for which Mr. Blaine is in no sense responsible.

We wish professional newspaper interviewers would be careful not to mislead the public mind in this mode. The deliberately pronounced opinions of gentlemen of ex-Speaker Blaine's high position, large experience, and great ability, when correctly reported, cannot fail to interest the people of the whole country, but when imperfectly stated, as in this case, it is not only unjust to the party interviewed, but detrimental to the public welfare.

No such interview should ever be published without the full knowledge and consent of the party whose opinions are thus given to the public, that he may not be made to seem to say what he does not intend. No one should be compelled to proclaim his opinions even on public affairs; and when he consents to the publicity of impressions and convictions, he should have an opportunity to say all and no more than he desires to communicate. A partial statement extorted in the run of what is supposed by him to be a private conversation, is often in effect as prejudicial to the truth as a willful misrepresentation.

Public men are, in a certain sense, public property, and their matured opinions are of public interest, but they are private property until voluntarily proclaimed; and giving the whole truth is as important in such cases as giving nothing but the truth, because a part of the truth is often in its effect a falsehood.

The Budget of Great Britain.

A Plan for the Reduction of the Public Debt.

Another Prussian Note to Belgium.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Proceedings of Parliament.

LONDON, April 15.—In the House of Commons to-day there was a long and excited debate on a petition praying for the dismissal from the bench of the Judges who sat in the Tichborne trials, on the ground of partiality and corruption, and for the impeachment of the Speaker of the House of Commons for similar reasons. On motion of Disraeli, the petition was rejected.

The annual budget was submitted to the House to-night by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. It shows that the surplus of receipts over expenditures for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1875, was £593,833. The expenditures for the current fiscal year are estimated at £75,268,000, and the revenues at £75,685,000, leaving a surplus of £417,000.

The Chancellor stated that these estimates are liable to be affected by supplementary estimates in connection with the Irish education measure and other matters. The only change in taxation is a readjustment of brewers' licenses and of stamp duties, through which he expects the surplus will be reduced to £357,000.

Mr. Childers said the estimates were too finely drawn, and he anticipated a deficit.

The budget includes the following plan for the reduction of the public debt: The charge on account of the debt for the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1876, is estimated at £27,215,000. This charge is to be gradually increased until it amounts to £28,000,000 in 1877, at which figure it shall permanently remain. The yearly overplus which is not required for the payment of interest shall be applied to the redemption of the debt. Thus, in thirty years, £213,000,000 of the debt can be canceled.

There will be local inspectors at Chicago, Milwaukee, Escanaba and Buffalo. The other propositions will not be favorably considered.

A Railway Train Delayed—A Map of the Black Hills Region—Troops to Guard the Entrance to the Gold Fields.

CHEYENNE, WY., April 15.—The Union Pacific train due here at 2:25 P. M. on the 14th is still detained near Green river by a wash out.

The publishers of the Cheyenne Daily Leader issued to-day an extra edition of 50,000 copies, containing a fine map of the Black Hills region, including all the mountain ranges known under that name. The map was made from an official survey obtained from the Surveyor General's office.

Professor Janney, the Black Hills geologist, and General Crook, commander of the Department of the Platte, are expected here to-morrow.

Several companies of cavalry have left here during the past week for Fort Laramie, from which point they will be sent to guard the entrance to the gold fields. The indications are that the Government will soon open up this country to settlement. The city is rapidly filling up with people, who are only waiting for permission from the Government to go to the new Eldorado.

CINCINNATI.

Delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church.

CINCINNATI, April 15.—Delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church were elected to-day by the Presbytery of Cincinnati, as follows: Rev. Dr. E. D. Morris, Rev. W. A. Hutchinson, Rev. H. A. Rossiter, Elders E. D. Mansfield, James Taylor and D. J. Fallis. The Presbytery reconsidered its vote taken last fall on the overture from the General Assembly concerning the election of Elders for a term of three years, and voted in favor of the overture.

Lake Insurance.

CLEVELAND, April 15.—The Executive Committee of the International Board of Lake Underwriters, at a meeting yesterday, adopted the following: First—A reduction of 10 per cent. for April, not used on hull rates, if approved by a majority of the companies; second—trip rates approved at second class cargo rates, without the rebate of 10 per cent; third—rates fixed on cargoes from ports west of Cleveland on Lake Erie to Erie, Pa.; fourth—no average season rates on cargoes permitted.

AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

The opinions as to the merits of Col. Mulberry Sellers, as a dramatic character, are many and various. Some give Mark Twain credit for his creation, and others think there isn't much in it, but notwithstanding the diversity of opinion Col. Sellers continues to draw immense houses and manages to keep them in a wonderfully merry mood. "The Gilded Age" will only be produced three times more.

Academy of Music.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" was played last night with Mrs. G. C. Howard in her original character of Topsy. She has enacted the part so often that it has almost become identified with her name, and so familiar is the role to her, through long and careful acting in it, that she gives a Topsy true to nature, and does not seek for effect by unnatural straining. She is supported by a very good company in which Mr. G. C. Howard appears as St. Clair, Mr. Maddox as George Harris, Mr. Scallon as Gumption Cute, Mr. Henderson as Marks, and Miss Adele Clarke as Aunt Ophelia. Little Miss Newman sustained the part of Eva very intelligently and her singing was warmly applauded.

Germania Orchestra.

This afternoon at Library Hall the Germania Orchestra gives the ninth of its series of twelve concerts. The entertainment will be a very choice one, judging from the following programme:

PART I.

1. Fest Overture.........Leutner
2. Lichtensteiner Walzes.........Labitzky
3. Abschiel (Farewell) Ballad.........Abt
Mr. John J. Benitz.
4. Potpourri LaFille de Mme. Angot.........Lecocq

PART II.

1. Overture, Merry Wives of Windsor.........Nicolai
2. Traumbilder (by request).........Lumbye
3. The Two Grenadiers.........Schumann
Mr. John J. Benitz.
4. Amaryllis Air.........King Henry XIII
5. Grand Galop d Concert.........Neumann

"An Evening With the Poets".

This evening Major Wm. Frew lectures at the Pennsylvania Female College. He has chosen for his theme "An evening With the Poets," and we have no doubt but that all who may be fortunate enough to hear him will be entertained and instructed.

Musical and Dramatic Notes.

EMILY SOLDENE is playing in New Orleans, as is also John E. Owens.

MRS. ELIZABETH HOLLY is a new contralo with the Kellogg opera troupe.

ANNIE LOUISE CARY will receive 40,000f., or $8,000, for five months St. Petersburg.

"SHAUGHRAUN," in Irish, means a vagabond, a sort of Hibernian "Rip Van Winkle,' with the long nap omitted.

E. A. LOCKE has been playing "Rip Van Winkle" in some of the Southern cities with but indifferent success.

M. CAPOUL and Signor Brignoli are to sing, with Signor Campanini, at Drury Lane Theatre, in London, this season.

A BOSTON opinion: "Mrs. Rousby is a beauty, an actress of more than ordinary ability, and wears good clothes. Voila tout."

THE fountain to be presented by the actress Lotta to the city of San Francisco is now in process of construction in Philadelphia.

TOM KARL, of the Adelaide Phillips Opera Troupe, has been sent to the hospital at Utica. His illness will again break up the troupe.

MISS MAY BRYANT, the contralto of the Boston Philharmonic Club, is handsome, only 19, and has, it is said, a voice like that of Anna Louise Cary.

A NEW American prima donna, the daughter of E. L. Davenport, and sister of Fannie and May Davenport, has made a decided hit in opera in Italy.

MISS CARRIE SIMS, of New York, who is to be married shortly at Dr. Houghton's Church to Mr. Harvey Sanford, was once a protege of the ex-Empress Eugenie, who pronounced her "the most beautiful American in Paris."

AMONG the English stars whom Max Strakosch will endeavor to capture during his stay abroad, are Henry Irving, Miss Ada Cavendish, and Miss Julia Matthews. Miss Matthews is said to be the best English opera-bouffe singer at present on the stage.

AS Mr. John T. Raymond appeared as Col. Sellers at our Opera House Wednesday afternoon and evening, it is not probable that he attended the funeral of Dan W. Bryant, in New York, on the afternoon of that day, as announced in the papers of that city.

AT the Grand Opera House, Cincinnati, last week, the attraction was the appearance upon the stage of Mrs. Ada Gaddis, whose late husband was the Rev. Max P. Gaddis, a clergymen well known in the East during his lifetime. A natural penchant, she says, induced her to take the step, the indulgence of which, while a minister's wife, she was of course debarred.

MISS CLARA MORRIS is not a ventriloquist, although an impression to that effect is very natrally conveyed by advertisement of her performance, which states that when her voice does not "pour forth in a torrent," and does not "ripple with the melody of joy," and is not "stifled as though filled with tears," when none of these astonishing things happens, "it comes stealing softly from afar as though swept in by a zephyr from a summer sea."

A RECENT Hamlet proposing to play the part of the Danish Prince in a red cloak, inquired of a Shakspearian actor of the old school if he were justified in doing the same. "Red was the color of mourning in the royal house of Denmark," said the old actor. "But how do you get over this," persisted Hamlet, quoting, "'Tis not alone my inky cloak, good mother?" "Well," answered the venerable one, "I suppose that there is such a thing as red ink?"

ALLEGHENY STREET COMMITTEE.

Business Disposed of at Last Night's Meeting.

The Street Committee of Allegheny Councils met last evening, Mr. N. H. Voeghtly presiding.

A petition for the removal of a private sewer on Overhill street was referred to the City Solicitor, in connection with the street Commissioner, for examination.

It was reported that the bricks used in the construction of the sidewalk on Elm street were not what they should be. The matter was referred to the Street Inspector and City Engineer.

The street lying between Fairmount and Fountain streets was named Rogers street.

The ordinance relative to the regrading and repaving of Madison avenue, between East street and Concord street, was referred to the City Engineer to ascertain what part of the costs should be paid by the contractor who constructed the main sewer on that street.

The City Engineer was directed to prepare a profile of the grade of Eggers street.

A stone crossing was ordered to be laid across Rebecca street, at Nelson street.

Street Commissioner Tyson, of the Eastern District, was directed to receive bids for repairing the boardwalk on Ohio street, Eighth ward.

The City Engineer was directed to make an estimate of the cost of regrading and repaving River avenue from Pine street to Herr's Island bridge.

The Contreller was directed to advertise for proposals for the construction of the sewer on Hughes alley.

The following ordinances were ordered to be prepared for presentation to Councils:

For lateral sewer on Palo Alto street, from Taylor avenue to North avenue. For grading and paving of Franklin street, from Irwin avenue to Fremont street. For lateral sewer on the first alley east of Monterey street, from Ledlie street to Ackley street.

It was agreed to report adverse to granting the following: Resolution for steps from Howard street to East street. Ordinance for the paving of Preble avenue. Ordinance authorizing the quashing of the report of the viewers on the opening of Federal street, and appointing new viewers. Ordinance for repeal of ordinance authoring the grading and paving of McClure avenue.

Adjourned to meet on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock to visit Buchanan street.

Vick's Floral Guide.

Now that spring has fairly opened out, the thoughts of the gardener and the husbandman are turned to the matter of planting, and he is not only putting his ground in order, but is making a selection of seeds. Believing that at this moment a word of advice will be taken kindly, we direct the attention of our friends to the assortment to be had from the famous seed and floral establishment of Mr. James Vick, of Rochester, New York. Mr. Vick is a veteran in the business, and what he does not know about it, is of very little value. Those who wish to get full particulars as to what he can do, should send for a catalogue. It is one of the most beautiful annual periodicals of which we have any knowledge. It is profusely illustrated, contains a large amount of practical information, and gives a complete list of seeds, so that the purchaser can learn the prices, the character, and all about any particular class of seeds enumerated in the book.

Mr Vick, we know from personal experience, is a reliable gentleman, and very prompt in all his dealings. He guarantees all he sells, and fills all orders without a moment's delay. His seeds always prove satisfactory, and no patron ever has cause to complain of the treatment accorded him. We can heartily endorse his goods and the man himself.

KING, REED & CO.

FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1875.

BONDS at Frankfort 99.

PETROLEUM at Antwerp 30½f.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 115½.

THE Senatorial excursionists have reached Charleston, on their way home.

THE Beecher case has been adjourned till Monday, owing to the illness of Judge Fullerton.

THE Legislative Committee, appointed to investigate the State Treasury, visited the Department at Harrisburg, a few days since, and ascertained that the books would be opened to a sub-committee for examination. Having learned this much they left. We hope the examination will be carefully made, and the results published.

THE Philadelphia Times says of the political talk relative to Governor Hartranft's signing the Local Option repeal bill: "We don't take much stock in third-party movements for the next Gubernatorial contest, and we shall be surprised if the distinctive Temperance vote foots up as large as it did last year. It will not be a good season for throwing away votes, and most persons who won't want General Hartranft re-elected will be very likely to vote squarely for the 'other fellow.'"

THE mills have generally started, with double turn. Whether this indicates the possession of orders, or confidence that they can be had, is hard to tell. There are those who criticise it as bad policy, and others who favor it as wise. Its wisdom or unwisdom depends on whether the market can be stimulated to activity. It is an admitted fact that the stock of iron is low, both East and West—with a better market at the West than at the East. We congratulate our manufacturers on the vigor manifested, when the time arrived for work. Our observation is, that a cheerful, hopeful spirit generally prevails, and a disposition to make the best of the situation. As one form of business activity stimulates others, we hope our manufacturers may find trade at prices that will pay.

GODFREY, the Washington caterer, who supplied Speaker Campbell and friends with eatables and drinkables, including "stag," has gained his suit for the recovery of the amount due him. The trouble over the bill turned on the assertion of Mr. Campbell that several "galoots" had been dined and wined, and that he was charged with the expense. Not being disposed to contribute to the luxurious enjoyment of "galoots," he had refused to pay any part of the bill. Indeed, Mr. Campbell regards himself as generally an injured man. He was Speaker of the District Legislature, and in a position to enjoy himself at the public expense, when suddenly his entire Legislature was abolished, his convivial bills sent to him, and even the entertainment of "galoots" included in the list of charges. But sad must be his feelings as he discovers he is not sympathized with, and that an ungrateful jury, partly composed, possibly, of those very "galoots," gives judgment against him. It is an illustrative case. Evidently it makes all the difference imaginable, whether the public or the private individual pays a bill. There are no "galoots" in public accounts.

ONE by one, Postmaster General Jewell is unearthing frauds, and if he continues, he may yet make his department a self-sustaining institution. The mail-bag repairing frauds are the last discovered. There are fifty places where mail bags, hitherto, have been repaired, the work being done by contract. A short time since, suspicions began to be entertained that at St. Louis and Indianapolis frauds were being perpetrated, and a special agent was assigned to investigate. In one case, the contractor was getting about $15,000 a year, and the other about $24,000, whereas it is believed that all the work, for the entire country, need not cost more than $20,000 a year. The plan, in one case was to cut and disfigure the bags, and then repair them. In the other, it was simply to charge for repairs that were not made, and smuggle the work in. An entirely different system has been adopted. The contract system has been entirely abolished, and at Indianapolis, St. Louis and New York, repair shops are to be established, and the repairs made under the direct supervision of the Government. A large saving will thus be effected. Thus the work of reform goes steadily forward. Of course, all the journals who charge any defect in any department of Government on President Grant will credit him with a part of the merit of these reforms.

EFFORTS have been made at times to institute a comparison between our beautiful Speaker, Patterson, and Haines, of Illinois; but the latter carries the palm. The Republicans closed the session by protesting against his misconduct, and he in return had a special plea in his favor spread upon the journal of the House, although one-half of his own party refused to sign it, so mendacious and vile was it. The Republican protest, now on file before the people, brands Mr. Haines as unfaithful to his oath, guilty of unexampled injustice in his rulings, and of a partisanship as unscrupulous as mendacity could possibly render it. As a result, the session of the Legislature was worse than a failure. Says the Chicago Inter-Ocean, writing of it, and him: "It is quite impossible to consider the Twenty-ninth General Assembly without writing of Haines. He inspired the body with his own demoniac spirit. He imbued the majority with his own impracticable characteristics to such an extent as to render every effort to facilitate the transaction of business utterly futile. He infused into every member of the majority that exceptional quality of viciousness which distinguishes him to a remarkable degree. It follows that the session of the House could not well be other than a succession of turbulent scenes, in which legislation was next to impossible. The Democratic party required but one new element to secure its absolute wreck. That element was the accession to its ranks of E. M. Haines."

FLAPDOODLE is at it again. It assumes to quote a remark of ours to the effect that the Governor has adopted the general principle of signing such bills enacted by the Legislature as are not unconstitutional, and to doubt whether such a rule is observed by the Governor. "Of course," says this vivacious journal, "where acts are manifestly unconstitutional, he ought not to sign them, for that would be foolish procedure, but to imply that the veto was ordered mainly for cases of this sort is to put a light, fallacious and wholly insufficient estimate upon it." A little farther on it says, with beautiful consistency, "the Local Option Act is clearly unconstitutional in some of its provisions as explained in this journal at the time of its passage, and not a few careful jurists are inclined to believe that it is unconstitutional as a whole.' Hence the Governor has perpetrated the "foolish procedure" of signing a bill which Flapdoodle explained to be unconstitutional. The misfortune evidently is that the Governor did not select it for his Attorney General. As it is, Attorney General Dimmick, as is well known, subjected the bill under mention to careful investigation, with reference to its constitutionality, and having decided that it conforms to the provisions of our fundamental law the Governor signed it, for the exact reason we stated. It may be a "light, fallacious and wholly insufficient" policy, to consider a bill with reference to its constitutionality, and to leave the question of policy with the representatives of the people in Legislature assembled, but it is not a new idea, and the Governor is to be commended for following it. It puts responsibility where it belongs.

POLITICAL OUTGIVINGS.

That the political caldron has begun to move under the impulse of Presidential hands, is too evident to doubt or deny. The lines are being closely drawn, and Presidential candidates are rising and falling in large numbers. Mr. Washburne is reported out of the field, and if the report is credited, it will be interpreted as indicating that President Grant will be a candidate for a third term. But there are good men and true within the party who will be candidates, and the race will be to the swift as well as to the strong. Touching the contest within the Republican party, little that is new develops, all interested being busy arranging their measures for success. In the Democratic party a very similar condition of things exists. There is much indecision as to who shall be the candidate, while the individual competitors are engaged in collecting influences to help them on to success. With all this, we have no special interest at the present.

The general principles on which the contest will be waged are of unusual importance. Old issues, as the color line, and possibly even the war theories, are not likely to play so important a part as formerly, and new topics are very likely to come into play. Just what these will be, will depend on the maneuvres of the parties in the interim. The Democracy are earnestly engaged in so arranging the situation that they may take the aggressive in the next contest; but they are met with the difficulty of a session of Congress with their party in the majority in the House. The responsibility attaching to this is what they dread. Until the session is over, none can tell whether they may not have enough to do to defend themselves. Hence there is much uncertainty of plan, even among the Democracy. On the other hand, the elections so far held are anything but encouraging to the Democracy. Even Connecticut, their solitary victory, is much less a triumph than it seemed at first. Putting aside the Gubernatorial vote, toward which the Republicans gave little heed, it is seen that in the Congressional vote, they came within 190 of gaining as many votes as did the Democrats. Hence the close analysis, now being made of the result of that election is not encouraging to the Democrats, while Rhode Island and Michigan do not serve to stimulate them very greatly.

The financial issue, as applied to politics is still in abeyance, and it is difficult to conjecture just how it will develop. It is really more important to the Republican party that business should recuperate than it is to the Democracy. The party in power is always charged with any mishaps that occur, and it matters not whether they be the result of political policy, or of trade relations that are totally independent of politics, it follows that the party in power is made to suffer. If business revives the Republican party is good for a triumph in 1876.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

The several members of the late Constitutional Convention from Luzerne county have submitted to their constituents a comprehensive criticism of the amendments proposed to the new Constitution by the Constitutional Commission appointed last year by the Legislature. The first amendment is passed over as immaterial,—as it simply prevents the resignation of a member of the Legislature pending an investigation. The second and third restore the old system of managing and making appropriations. The fourth and eighth, fixing the manner of commissioning, and the beginning of the terms of Judges is declared unnecessary, as both the Constitution and law already regulate the same subject. The fifth amendment enlarges the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court,—and it is objected that it was purposely limited by the Constitutional Convention to save the Judges from excessive labor. So far, the remonstrants claim, their reasons are unanswerable. The sixth, referring the judicial districts, is claimed to be premature, while the seventh, which provides that Associate Judges of the Common Pleas shall serve in all the Courts of their respective counties, the only question arising has been settled by the Supreme Court, and hence does not require a constitutional amendment. The ninth amendment strikes out the sixteenth section of the Judiciary article, which applies Buckalew's cumulative voting system to the election of judiciary officers. The argument against this does not strike us as particularly forcible. It is claimed that the system gave us Paxson and Woodward at the last election, allays partisanship, and removes the judiciary election from the atmosphere of politics. The truth is, it simply transfers the choice of Judges from the people to the politicians. It was well known that at the time when Woodward and Paxson were nominated, that the Conventions practically appointed them—the people being permitted merely to register the degrees of the Conventions. To say that any plan that refers the selection of men to the Nominating Conventions is non-partisan is absurd. It is all the more partisan that it is taken from the people and remanded to Nominating Conventions, generally controlled by politicians.

The tenth amendment, authorizing the pay of Judges to be increased during their terms of office, is stated to be a departure from a wholesome rule. It should not be decreased; but there is good reason why it should not be increased. Any other rule makes the salaries of Judges practically unchangeable, as there are, at all times, Judges on the Bench whose terms have not expired. Either this, or different rates will be made for different Judges. The eleventh amendment, authorizing Judges to appoint under officials, it is claimed, is already given in the Constitution. The twelfth amendment is important. It takes the trial of contested elections of members of the General Assembly from the Courts and vests them in the Legislature. The objections alleged against the proposed changes are that they revise the deliberate action of the Convention, and that the Legislature decides such subjects, usually, on partisan grounds. There is a measure of truth in this,—yet the trouble and delay involved in referring it to the Courts is also an objection. The thirteenth and fourteenth amendments,—the one exempting colleges and hospitals from taxation, and the other limiting the indebtedness of cities are superfluous, as both ideas are embodied in laws. The fifteenth, that "all fines and penalties shall be paid into the treasury of the county," is opposed on the ground that it will include the township and borough fines as tributary to the county treasury. Minority and proportional representation in local boards, are repealed by the sixteenth and seventeenth amendments, and the argument against them is that such representation is both desirable and right. The next three amendments are considered unnecessary, as having no special influence. The final proposition that writs of error and appeals to the Supreme Court shall be permitted only in cases where the sum in controversy exceeds $500 is objected to, on the score that amount in issue does not always afford a criterion as to the importance of a case. The document will carry some weight, as its reasoning is specious, but will not prevail very largely.

IF you write down the figure 5 and twenty-one cyphers and call the unit tons, that is, they say, the weight of this world of ours. For instance—5,000,000,000,000,000,000,000. If there were some unit of weight that represented a milliard of tons, there would be five thousand milliards of that weight.

Mrs. Sherman has certainly been showing him off to the best advantage recently, in newspapers and on the stage.

IT IS announced that the widow of the late Thomas Emery, of Cincinnati, proposes to build for the Young Men's Christian Association of that city a new structure especially adapted to their wants, on the site now occupied by them. The building will have an audience hall for 1,200 sittings. Mrs. Emery proposes to give from $75,000 to $100,000 for this object.

MRS. MERIE ANTOINETTE NATHALIE POLLARD had recently to explain to a Baltimore audience, before whom she was lecturing, that she was not the person connected with some unpleasant shooting scandals in Maryland and Virginia. She is simply the widow of E. A. Pollard, the historian. Some one has blundered sadly in attributing to her the history of another lady of the same name.

PARAGRAPHS about the ill-health of President Grant are becoming frequent. Among the reports one is that Dr. Brown-Sequard, after a social call on the President, declared that unless he changed his course of living he would not live a year; and another is that the physical and mental condition of the President is Vice President Wilson's reason for giving up his European trip. Dr. Brown-Sequard now denies that he ever made such a remark, and the Vice President explains that his plans were not changed to meet any emergency of the kind reported.

A CORRESPONDENT asks the Journal of Education to rise and explain, or step down and out of the spelling school. He writes that in their test words for spelling schools, about 950 in all, instead of 1,500, he finds that forty-six are repeated, two are repeated twice and three spelt incorrectly, viz.: testacious for testaceous, eyrie for eyry, woolen for woollen.

A PHYSICIAN of Saylorville, Iowa, who was made the victim of a first of April hoax by receiving a summons from a fictitious patient, and traveling a considerable distance in haste to answer it, turned the tables on the jester by sending in to him a bill for professional services, and compelling payment, with costs, by process of law.

A FEW evenings since a strange colored man walked into the house of B. F. Cheevers, Westtown, Conn., took a seat at the stove, pulled off his shoes, and proceeded to make himself at home. Mr. Cheevers produced a pistol, and the intruder didn't stay.

A NOTE from Cherrytree, Pa., of April 14, says: "We had a continuous fall of snow here yesterday from before daylight until after dark. I suppose about ten inches in depth if it had remained. THE severe winter has driven the crows into the Shenandoah Valley in such numbers as to compel the farmers to hasten their corn into their barns without husking. The birds cover the country by thousands, and, as an evidence of their numbers and of the straits to which the winter has reduced them, hundreds have perished from starvation, while many others have had their eyes picked out while yet alive.

A DISPATCH from Havana says that Wm. J. Sharkey, the convicted murderer, who escaped from the Tombs in New York, had arrived there in irons from Santiago de Cuba. His jailers say he attempted to escape from the prison there by digging his way out of the cell; that he had made repeated attempts to slip from his handcuffs while on the way to Havana, and attempted to leap overboard. Sharkey will leave for New York on the first steamer.

A GENTLEMAN of this city, afflicted with a statistical mania, has counted the beer saloons on State street. He says there are just fifty-three in the distance of one mile, between Twelfth and Twenty-second streets—that is, one to every 100 feet.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.—Any one of a statisticalturn of mind might do much better than the Chicago man if he would take the Court House at Pittsburgh as a starting point and count the drinking saloons within a radius of half a mile. We venture that he could almost double Chicago's number.

THE telegraphic dispatches in the papers often contain the word balance, used in an unlawful sense. A few mornings ago our dispatches spoke of "the balance of the ticket" and "the balance of the session." There is no good authority for any such use of this word. It is a corruption of the term too common in commercial language, is heard in conversation, as well as seen in print, almost every day; but no standard author that we ever read uses balance in such a sense. The word "remainder" would be generally more appropriate.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

IT IS reported that a Maine spelling-match in which the leading literati of Lewistown were engaged, came to grief over the orthography of "mosquito." It would be interesting to learn what original ingenuity was brought to bear upon a new combination of letters which could possibly be declared inadmissable, since dictionaries give authority for no less than fourteen spellings of the word in question, viz: mosquito, musquito, moscheto, moschetto, mosquetoe, mosquetto, muscheto, muschetto, musketo, musketoe, muskitto, musqueto, musquetoe and musquitto.

WELSH law gives to single women at least one advantage over married women. A maiden lady who commits a breach of the peace is permitted to escape with a smaller fine than would be imposed if she were married. Recently, in Aberdare, twelve women were arrested for rioting and the single ones were fined ten shillings, while the married ones were compelled to pay a pound a piece. The reason for this singular distinction does not appear; but we suppose that the heavier penalty is imposed upon married women as a measure of protection for their imperiled husbands.

WM. D. BISHOP, President of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, has issued orders requiring the conductors to collect full fare from all passengers, whether they may have passes or not. Under this order, he says, it will be necessary for the President of the United States and his Cabinet, and also the committee of the Massachusetts Legislature who go to New York to receive them, to pay regular fare on their trip to Boston and return, to celebrate the centennial anniversary of the battle of Lexington. President Bishop explains that this order is necessary, owing to the injunction restraining the issue of passes.

A DISPATCH from Sioux City, Iowa, says during the recent high water in Floyd river, a powerful current set against the base of the hill on which is situated Floyd Cemetery, where Sioux City buries its dead. The current gradually undermined the bluff, huge sections of it sliding into the river, carrying many coffins, which floated down the river. The sexton stated that in the neighborhood of twenty graves had been carried away. Others who are familiar with the locality say more than twice that number are gone. A man from down the river reports that he counted fifteen coffins lodged on an island about four miles below. One slide in the afternoon carried down six graves, leaving the ends of seventeen coffins projecting from the bank.

AN ounce ball from an Enfield rifle was removed from behind the eyeball of Gen. John F. Miller, in San Francisco, a few days ago. The ball entered the eye at Liberty Gap, Tennessee, July 24, 1863. The General lay in a comatose condition for two or three days, and the surgeon pronounced death almost inevitable. He rallied, however, and the wound finally healed. But the recovery was never complete. The General has suffered from neuralgic pains, and of late the uninjured eye had begun to show signs of weakening through sympathy. The ball had adhered to the bone, and was fast in its place, but yielded to the instrument, and was speedily abstracted. The eye was then dressed, and the General left in a comfortable condition. Thus, for nearly twelve years, the General had been carrying in his head an ounce of lead.

WEBSTER CITY, the shire town of Hamilton county, Iowa, a bustling little town of nearly 3,000 inhabitants, situated about midway between Dubuque and the west line of the State, boasts of having shipped during the past Winter more grain and live-stock than any other town on the Iowa Division of the Illinois Central Railway, and has 50,000 to 75,000 bushels of corn cribbed near the depot, waiting for the good prices near at hand. The farmers have not yet sold their wheat. A mania for building sidewalks has broken out, and threatens to pervade the remotest nooks of the town. The people are at work to secure we do not know how many railroads, and an organization has been perfected to induce the starting of several manufacturing enterprises. Of course that community will go on from prospering to prosperity. So mote it be.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

THE OLD BARN.

BY LOUISE BILLINGS SPALDING.

A misty twilight filled the country barn,
And gathered in gray shadows o'er the mows;
While thread-like sunbeams pierced each gaping seam,
And lit the manger of the feeding cows.

What childish games we played among the hay,
Of hide-and-seek behind the sheaves of grain;
With bursts of childish laughter, free and light,
As we can never hope to laugh again.

O, how the echo of our shouts would ring
From roof to stable through the joyous day!
The cows would cease their feeding and look up,
For wonder at our revelry, so gay.

We'd play mad games with pitchfork and with rake,
Fright'ning the brood-hen cackling from her nest;
We'd bowl with pumpkins 'cross the threshing floor
Till Evening trailed her sable in the west.

No spot so wondrous as the old gray barn,
Where Don, the farmhouse, stood, and peaceful cows
Chewed solemnly their cuds, stanchioned secure
Beneath the shadow of the dusky mows.

The swallow left her nest beneath the eaves,
And twittered o'er us while we romped at play;
As though she, too, partook of our glad games,
And shared the joy that made our laugh so gay.

But, deep within the calm eyes of the cows,
When past the manger in our play we trod,
Something within their sinless depths appalled,
And made us think of mystery, and God.

Something we could not solve, nor comprehend,
Which hushed our laughter and our boisterous play;
Till solemn awe possessed our little souls,
And, one by one, we sighed and crept away.

O, for one blessed hour of the pure joy
Lived in the old gray barn beneath the hill!
O, for a single laugh like that of old,
Whose deathless echo never will be still!

The breath of lambs is not more chaste or pure
Than such loved memories, wafted amid our youth;
They come like doves from consecrated bowers,
Loved messengers of innocence and truth.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, April 16, 1875.

The resumption of work at the mills, and its influence on our home finances, was the topic of conversation in financial circles yesterday. This, in the absence of any other exciting topic, was variously considered, but generally the impression was that it would contribute to the prosperity of our financial institutions. Our banks, while carefully and conservatively managed, have not been making a large amount of money for several months past. They have accumulated deposits, but have not found ready borrowers of the acceptable kind. Now that the mills have started, there will naturally be, very soon, a strong draw on the banks, and money will be in active use. The impression also prevails that the start will greatly lighten the prospects of trade in all departments of business. The fact that large amounts will be paid the puddlers will set so much in circulation that will go through all the channels of trade. We find it difficult to gather the exact status of the iron trade, but from extensive inquiries, and taking into account specialties, we think our manufacturers generally are making a little.

—For some time past the banks and bankers have been complaining as to the arbitrary pretension set up by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to examine national bank checks to see if the law requiring stamps has been complied with in all cases. The Commissioner claims the right to examine all canceled bank checks. The Controller of the Currency, who holds a different opinion, says it is well known that it is the custom of all well managed banks to return to their dealers monthly or quarterly such checks as may have been paid, with the bank book of the dealer, in which is entered the amount of each check. The canceled checks now on hand do not represent the deposits or business of the bank. They are simply the checks of persons who are not regular dealers at the bank and which have accumulated for a series of years. It is not surprising that many of these checks, which have been handled over and over again for a number of years past, should be found wanting in stamps, for it is well known that the mucilage upon them is not sufficient to cause them to adhere firmly for any great length of time.

—In the United States Circuit Court, Judge Wallace has decided that where a national bank is wound up by a receiver, under direction of the Comptroller of the Currency, and a sufficient fund is realized from the assets to pay all claims against the bank and have a surplus, the creditors are entitled to interest on their claims during the period of administration, in preference to appropriating the surplus to the stockholders of the bank. The bank cannot be permitted to say that a depositor should have made a demand, when, if made, it would have been nugatory and useless. It has been held that in cases of insolvency where a debt is payable on demand and no special demand is shown, interest is to be computed from the first publication of the proceedings in insolvency.

—The Rothschilds have issued the prospectus of a new Russian loan, equal to $75,000,000, with interest at 4½ per cent. per annum, to be issued at 92. Of the total amount $40,000,000 are offered for subscription in London. The rest is reserved for St. Petersburg. When it is remembered that the Government of Russia already carries a debt equal to 1,790 millions of dollars, the rate of 4½ per cent. for this additional amount is very low as compared with our lowest rate of 5 per cent. for a loan at par.

—The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the Treasurer to withdraw from the available currency balance of the Treasury $1,488,000 of legal tenders, and that they be canceled and destroyed, the same being 80 per cent. of the additional circulation issued to the national banks during the month of March, until further redemptions under the act providing therefor are ordered.

—Thirteen of the principal Western railroads show receipts for March to the amount of $4,144,152, against $3,559,551 in same month last year, being an increase of $584,605. The most of this increase comes from the Pacific railroads, but several other roads give indication of a revival of business.

—One hundred canal boats left New York on Monday evening for Rondout, where there is an immense quantity of coal ready to be shipped to anxious consumers further north.

—Both houses of the New Jersey Legislature have passed the bill taking from the New York and Long Branch Railroad Company its power to unite with the Baltimore and Ohio.

—The three cent tax on coal mined in Pennsylvania by incorporated companies is involved at Harrisburg in six suits against so many companies, which deny the constitutionality of the tax.

—The London Times advises sensible people not to invest any more money in Canadian railroad projects. The advice we consider most wholesome.

—The Controller of the Currency has declared a dividend of ten per cent. in favor of the creditors of the First National Bank of Washington, payable on the 14th inst.

NEW YORK, April 15, 1875.

Money was 4@2½ per cent., closing at the lower figure. Prime mercantile paper is unchanged. Sterling was strong, at 476½ for sixty days and 490 for sight. The customs receipts were $314,000. Gold was steady at 115½@115¼, closing at the lowest price. The carrying rates were 1@2; borrowing 1-64@2 per cent. Loans were also made flat. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $23,000. The clearings were $28,000,000. The specie shipments to Havana were $413,000. Government and railroad bonds were firm. State bonds were steady. There was increased activity on the Stock Exchange to-day, and frequent changes in the temper of speculation. During the early hours a heavy feeling prevailed, and there was a general decline in prices ranging from ¼ to 1 per cent. In the afternoon a firmer feeling set in, and prices advanced ½ to 1¾ per cent., the closing quotations in many cases being the highest of the day. Union Pacific was the leading feature in the late dealings, and advanced from 69⅞ to 71⅜, closing at 71⅜ to 71¼. The transactions in the stock were large, and the market was animated at intervals. Erie was the next most prominent feature, and rose from 30⅞ to 31¼, closing at 31⅛. Pacific Mail was also active, and advanced to 43⅜, closing at that figure. St. Paul common recovered from 37⅞ to 38⅛, and Northwestern common from 43⅞ to 44⅞. Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph rose from 25 to 25⅞. The improvement in the remainder of the list was ⅛ to ⅜ per cent. Delaware, Lackawanna and Western declined to 114 on increased business. The market closed active and strong. The transactions aggregated 196,000 shares, of which 33,000 were Pacific Mail, 11,000 Western Union, 13,000 Northwestern common, 11,000 St. Paul, 54,000 Erie, 16,000 Lake Shore, and 43,000 Union Pacific.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, April 15, 1875.

Some of the retarding causes which have operated to prevent the development of the spring trade are disappearing, and others must soon give way to the force of returning confidence. The ending of the lock-out will have a most beneficial influence upon our local trade, as it will be the means of furnishing employment to hundreds, if not thousands of men who have been idle ever since it was inaugurated; puddlers and others who are behind with their grocers, butchers, etc., etc., will soon be able to pay up, and the retailer will then be enable to meet the demands of the wholesaler. There is a much better feeling in commercial circles in consequence of the starting up of the mills, as it is confidently expected that there will be a general improvement in business in consequence.

APPLES—The market continues dull but prices are without quotable change: selling at $1,50@2,50 ℔ bbl. as to quality and condition.

APPLE BUTTER—50@55c ℔ gal.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—2¾@3c ℔ lb.

BEANS—Continue to arrive freely, and with the supply accumulating and a stronger disposition to realize, prices are weak and lower; quotable at $1,75@1,80 per bushel for mediums, and $1,85@1,90 for navies.

BUTTER—There is no abatement in the demand for prime table Butter, and it is in light supply, but common stock is dull, with the market largely overstocked. Sales of prime to choice roll at 25@28c; medium to good quotable at 18@22c, and inferior to common at 10@15. A New York report under date of 14th says: "The market for old State butter is hardly a quotable subject. Only the first obtains any steady inquiry, and the difficulty in finding prime faultless half tubs for local use, or firkins for outside trade takes all of the spirit out of buyers. A few parcels of well kept Welsh are selling comparatively high, but few half tubs are good enough to bring 25c or 26c. The under grades of stock show an unwieldy bulk, and much of what is here will have to go to grease. The interior is not yet clear of old, and the present condition of prices will be apt to pickle and simmer a good portion of it. This is seldom a success for owners, for dealers object to handle such dairies when they are ultimately sent in, still they would hardly know what to do with the surplus if sent in this Spring. Exporters have operated quite freely, but sellers would gladly turn out a larger quantity and give the shipper about his own way in prices. New butter is steady with a fair daily supply. Old Western butter is low and seeking a market."

BROOMS—We quote "Union" factory prices: No 2 common, $2,75; No 3 Hurl, $3,00; No 4, $3,50; No 5, $4,00; No 6, $4,25; No. 3 Carpet, $4,50; No. 4 do, $4,75; fancy, Parlor, $5,00; Wisps, plain, $1,25@1,75; Wisps, fancy, $1,50@2; Toy Brooms, $1,50@2,00.

CHEESE—The general tone of the market is weaker, under the influence of recent advices from the east, but prices here remain unchanged; we continue to quote, in a jobbing way, at 16½@17 for prime Ohio Goshen, and 17@17½ for New York ditto. The receipts at New York continue large, but with a steady export demand there has been no accumulation.

CRANBERRIES—$10@12 ℔ bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues quiet and unchanged; Apples, 7½@8½; Peaches, (halves) 8½@9½c, as to quality.

EGGS—Continue to come in freely, and notwithstanding there is a fair demand, the market is weakening and prices drooping; we reduce our quotations to 16@17.

FLOUR—There is a fair local trade and the market is firm but unchanged. Spring wheat flours, $5,50@5,60 for Wisconsins; Minnesotas, $5,85@6; winter wheat, $5,85@6 for red, and $6,25@6.50 for amber and white. Both New York and Chicago were reported offish on Wednesday. Rye Flour, $5,75@6.

GROCERIES—The ending of the lock-out is certain to increase the demand for goods of this character, as retailers generally have little or no stock; and, furthermore, the iron workers will soon be able to pay the grocer, and they, in turn, will soon be enabled to meet the claims of the wholesaler; there is no question but the outlook is much brighter, and we look for a very decided improvement in trade within the next week or two. Those of our merchants who do a country business report that orders are coming in freely, and that, notwithstanding they are mostly comparatively small, they amount to considerable in the aggregate. Coffee is again reported firmer, and Sugars, Molasses and Syrups are also firm but unchanged.

GRAIN—There has been quite a reaction in Chicago within the past day or two, and the markets here are easier in consequence, but as stocks here are very much reduced, prices are still maintained, and besides it should be borne in mind that our market has been relatively low all along than those of the west. As regards Wheat there is no movement in it in this market, and prices are nominal at $1,16@1,18 for red and $1,20@1.22 for amber and white. There is some little inquiry for it and but little offering—there is no margin for profit at quotations. The supply of Oats is very much reduced, and with a steady demand, prices are still maintained; quotable at 67@68 cents for mixed and 70@71 for white. Ear Corn continues in very limited supply, and there is considerable inquiry, quotable at 80@82, according to quality. Shelled Corn quotable at 78@80 for mixed and 81@82 for prime yellow, free in elevator. Rye is scarce and wanted; $1,15@1,20. Nothing doing in Barley.

HAY—The receipts of baled continue comparatively light, but the supply is fully equal to the demand, and prices remain as last quoted; prairie, $16@17; timothy, $19@21, according to quality and condition. Oat Straw, on track, $16@17; Wheat Straw, $13@14.

HOMINY—4.25@4,50 ℔ bbl.

MAPLE SYRUP—Is in light supply, and the most of what is here is old stock; quotable at $1,20@1,25 ℔ gallon jug.

ONIONS—$3,50@4,50 ℔ bbl, according to quality and condition. Union Setts, $7@7.50 ℔ bu.

POULTRY—Market bare of dressed poultry. Live Chickens, by the coop, 65@75c ℔ pair according to size.

POTATOES—Continue to come in freely, and with the supply accumulating, the market is easier, and as compared with the early part of the week, prices are lower; we now quote prime Peach Blows at $1,00 per bushel on track, by the carload, and $1,10 from store.

PROVISIONS—There is a continued steady demand, and the general tone of the market is again firmer, although prices remain unchanged. Following are the current rates:

New York Wool Market.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Holders show more confidence generally, and offer supplies less urgently. The demand, however, in the local market has been comparatively limited thus far this week, manufacturers operating with reserve. The trade call has been light. Sales have been reported, since our last of equal to 33,500 lb Domestic Fleece at 52@56c; 21,000 lb Domestic Pulled, part at 47@50c; 2,000 lb Scoured at 80c; 50 bags Combing Pulled and 4,000 lb Montevideo on private terms; 100 bales and 2,000 lb California Spring at 22¾@26½c; 45 bales California Fall at 20@21c; 8,500 lb Texas at 31@35c; and 18 bales Montevideo Sheep Skins at 29c ℔ lb. Advices from San Francisco report increased activity in Spring Clips, with very liberal purchases for New York and Boston, within the range of 18@25 cents, gold.

Detroit.

DETROIT, April 15.—Flour quiet and unchanged. Wheat quiet; extra $1,22½; No 1 $1,19¼@1,19½; amber $1,16¾@1,17. Corn firm; No 1 mixed 75½c. Oats: demand fair and market firm at 63@64c.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, April 15, 1875. PITTSBURGH CENTRAL STOCK YARDS.

ARRIVALS.

Following were the arrivals from and including Sunday up until noon to-day, and, to afford a comparison, we append those of the corresponding time last week also:

	Cattle.	Hogs.	Sheep.
Sunday	69 cars	51 cars	18 cars
Monday	55 "	29 "	7 "
Tuesday	36 "	17 "	28 "
Wednesday	42 "	28 "	17 "

Total	209 "	141 "	80 "
Same time last week	234 "	64 "	63 "

CATTLE.

Receipts during past 24 hours, 25 cars, making 209 cars for the week, against 234 cars during corresponding time last week; sales, 1,002 head, against 1,580 the corresponding time last week. Included in the purchases were 45 cars to go to Philadelphia; 8 cars to New York; none for Baltimore, and 11 cars to country dealers and butchers.

The volume of business since the date of our last report was small, unusually so, but it was in consequence of a scarcity of stock, not for want of buyers; the run has been light all week, fully three-fourths of the arrivals during the past 24 hours were through consignments, and as the supply was unequal to the demand, holders had no difficulty in putting up prices. The advance was greatest on light cattle, as there was more inquiry for these than the heavier grades, and there usually is at this season of the year; and the former sold more readily and at better prices relatively than the latter. Butcher cattle brought 15@25c per cwt of an advance as compared with last week, while light stock, selling at 4½@5½ cents, ruled from ¼ to ⅜ of a cent higher.

As intimated in our report of yesterday, there is an increasing demand for stockers, and we look for considerable inquiry for this particular class of cattle during the next five, perhaps six weeks, as the supply in the hands of farmers in this section of country must be pretty well run down, and as the grass is coming along finely, they will want to buy, more or less, during the time in question. Notwithstanding trading in cattle has been unsatisfactory during the past year, as far as dealers generally were concerned, there is no doubt but producers did well, and this is one reason why we look for an active demand for stockers, as the fact that they realized a handsome profit on their cattle last year, will stimulate them to pitch in and try it over again. The Philadelphia shippers are still getting some cattle from Chicago, but they did not have as many from that point this week as usual, which caused an increased demand here, and this together with the very limited supply, enabled sellers to obtain the advance to which reference has been made. Extra shipping steers, 7⅜@7¾c; prime, 6¾@7c; medium to good, 5¾@6¼; cows and bulls, 4½@5½. Stockers, as per quality, 3¼@4½. To-day at noon there were no cattle remaining in the yards unsold.

HOGS.

The receipts continue to keep up well; as will be seen, they were more than double as compared with those of the corresponding time last week, 141 cars against 64 cars, and the market to-day was offish and the feeling considerably easier. There is no getting over the fact that the extreme prices are curtailing the demand; Philadelphia, our main and we might say only standby, for prime heavy weights, is not taking one car against four at this time last year, and the demand for shipment to New York and Baltimore has been very visibly curtailed by the same cause. Yorkers, as compared with yesterday, may be quoted down 15 to 20c ℔ cwt, and the market for the heavier grades was also weaker and dull to-day, with the supply increasing although it was not large; there was an absence of animation, and in the event of continued liberal receipts, with no increase in the demand, a still further shrinkage in prices within the next 24 hours is not improbable. The immediate future of the market hinges upon the receipts. Philadelphia hogs quotable at 9,25@9,75, as to quality, the latter an outside price; Yorkers, 8@8,25; Baltimore, 8½@8¾. The product continues to hold its own, as there is an active export and consumptive demand, and this is not without its effect in stimulating the hog market, and more than makes up for the falling off in the demand for the latter.

SHEEP.

The run of this class of stock, as will be seen, has been somewhat in excess of the same time last week, and while wooled sheep sold readily at an advance of a ¼ to ⅜ of a cent, clippers, on the other hand, dropped just as much as the former were advanced. This sudden and rather unexpected change in the general position of the market was brought about by the change in the weather, and as long as the thermometer keeps down to where it has been within the past two or three days, clippers will be at a discount and wooled sheep at a premium, as shippers generally do not care about handling the former when the weather is cold and unfavorable. Wooled sheep quotable as follows: Extra 100@110 lbs, 7¼@7½, 90@95 lbs, 6¾@7¼; 75@85 lbs, 6¼@6¾. Clipped—80@90 lbs, 4½@5½; 95@110 lbs, 5½@6.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, April 15, 1875.

Trade continues moderately active, but the markets, as compared with Wednesday, are devoid of any new or important features to which reference has not previously been made. Crude was quoted at $1,75@1,77½ ℔ bbl at Parker, and $1,87½@1,90 deliverable here in bulk barges. The producing interest are hopeful in regard to the future: they argue that the general outlook is favorable for a higher range of prices. It is said that the daily production does not exceed 22,000 barrels, against 33,000 bbls at the corresponding time last year; that the consumption will be greater, and while admitting that stocks are larger, it is contended that these stocks are in the hands of capitalists who are able to hold until such times as the market will afford them a margin for profit. Refined has undergone no quotable change as compared with yesterday; 11½ on cars here to go to Philadelphia and 11⅜ for shipment to Baltimore. Sales at 11½ on Philadelphia delivery.

Oil Barrels continue dull but nominally unchanged; countries, $1,15@1,20; city make, $1,30.

J. KABERNAGLE, Sergeant Signal Service, U. S. A.

THE stage of water last evening was 10 feet and falling. Cloudy and raw, with a slight rain late in the afternoon, and indications favorable for its continuance. Business only fair, but about all that can be expected; now, however, that the lock-out is over and many of the mills are on the eve of starting up, trade at the landing will no doubt improve considerably within the next week or two, as the shipments of iron and nails by river will no doubt be large before long.

THE Hornet No 2 has gone to Evansville to bring up a tow of empty barges.

LAFAYETTE WILD, a steamboat pilot, died last Thursday, at his residence in Memphis.

THE Thomas Sherlock has 16 bales of moss on board for Pittsburgh consignees.

THE A. J. Baker was to have left St. Louis on Wednesday for Steubenville with 1,200 tons of ore.

CAPT. LEA CRANE has taken command of the Tarascon during the illness of Capt. Dave Penny.

THE Morgan made the run from Evansville to New Albany in seventeen hours, including twenty-four landings.

THE Iron Mountain, en route for St. Louis, and Coal Valley and Coal City, en route for this port, were at Cincinnati yesterday.

A REPORT of the meeting of the Ohio River Improvement Commissioners with the U. S. Engineers, will be found in our local columns.

THE Granite State and towboats Tom. Dodsworth and Sam Parker arrived. The Cherokee from New Orleans is among the first boats due.

A LETTER from Capt. I. R. Whittaker, dated at St. Louis, stated that he expected to get the Fearless away from there on Saturday, 17th.

AN EVANSVILLE dispatch says:—The Morgan was five days and four hours out from New Orleans, and has done a large way business. She has 176 cabin and 130 deck passengers.

CAPT. THOS. S. CALHOUN, of the St. Louis and New Orleans steamer Glencoe, is on a visit to Georgetown, Pa., his old stamping ground. His boat is laid up at St. Louis.

THE Juniata, Capt. Brennan, is fixing up steadily for Cincinnati, and will take her departure to-morrow. She is a fine side-wheeler and offers superior accommodations to passengers.

FOLLOWING towboats were announced to go up this water—those that did not go yesterday will go out to-day: Enterprise, Bengal Tiger, Dick Fulton No. 3, Panther, Mary Ann and Joseph H. Bigley.

AN ice gorge broke above Minneapolis on Friday night, and swept four hundred thousand feet of logs out of the booms, and carried them over the falls. The water was the highest ever known at Minneapolis.

THE new steamer John L. Rhoads, Capt. J. M. Vandergrift, is announced to take her departure for St. Louis to-morrow without fail. Messrs. Fisher and Greenlee are associated together in the office.

ABOUT one-half of the damaged cargo of the Paragon was sold at auction at St. Louis, Wednesday forenoon. It brought good figures. About $30,000 was realized, and it is thought the wreck will pan out fully $10,000. Captain George Neare left for home in the evening.

JAMES DOUGHERTY, the pilot whose death at Cairo has been announced, was born in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, and was 40 years of age. His first occupation on the river was as a deck-hand, and he gradually and steadily rose from that position. He became well-known extensively as a pilot between Cincinnati and St. Louis and New Orleans, and in the Arkansas. He was a long time piloting in the Arkansas, for Captain John A. Williams. The deceased leaves a wife but no children.

THE Louisville Courier, of Wednesday, says:—The imperial flag-ship of the towboat fleet, Alice Brown, arrived from Cairo yesterday with the largest tow of the season and making quick time. She had seven model barges, seven 160-feet barges, and 6 130 feet barges, making 20 in all. Time from Cairo here, three days and nine hours. She left for Cairo last evening with twenty loaded barges. Geo. Burritt and John Taylor are her pilots. The Alice is entitled to a new flag and her crew to a good supper.

A CAIRO correspondent says the Exporter had to lay for 24 hours above Smithland for wind Tuesday night. She has 60 passengers, who are enjoying the trip very much. Captain Rees, of Pittsburgh, and family, and Mr. Joe Brown are among the number. Mr. Brown is acting as steersman, I believe, which would seem to indicate that he has some idea of becoming a pilot. Perhaps he is only preparing to write a novel or edit an almanac. Captain Rees expected that Tom Darrah would meet the Exporter here, as Darrah is to go clerk on some Southern boat.

JOHN M. CHAMBERS is the name of a new sternwheel steamer, just completed at St. Louis, for the Missouri River trade. Her hull is 175 feet long, 33½ feet beam, 5 feet hold, with a full length cabin. She has 2 double-flue boilers, 24 feet long, 38 inches in diameter, the cylinders being 14 inches in diameter, with 5 feet stroke. She will carry 500 tons, with a custom-house measurement of 267 tons. She will trim in 18 inches of water. She cost $30,000, and is insured in Cincinnati and other offices for $26,000. The Chambers is owned by her commander, Capt. Joseph La Barge, Jr.

YESTERDAY'S Cincinnati Commercial says:—The Cherokee, of Pittsburgh, departed during the night. The Charles Bodmann, for New Orleans, has a moderate freight, but has good way engagements. The Coal Hill, with a tow of [illegible] from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed up. The Coal Valley, J. C. Risher, Hornet No. 2, Eagle and Hercules, with coal from Pittsburgh, arrived. The Eagle, Hercules, Hornet No. 2, and J. C. Risher, with empty barges for Pittsburgh, passed up. Nick Whitten and W. H. Hill pilot the Cherokee to Pittsburgh. Theodore and Wes. Davis are at the wheel of the Coal Hill. Joe Purcell and Charley Owens are the Charles Bodmann's pilots. George Hukill and Thomas Gross are the H. S. Turner's pilots. The Iron Mountain passed down at 6:30 P. M., with a tow of coke and coal, from Pittsburgh to St. Louis.

HOME NEWS.

Congratulatory.

Our young friend Mr. Thomas B. Riter has signalized the advent of the month of showers by entering in a hymeneal co-partnership with one of Pittsburgh's fairest daughters, Miss S. A. McCallin. Thomas always did seem to be a favorite of Dame Fortune—albeit none are more deserving—and in this instance, the goddess has been especially kind in allowing him to secure a lady who unites to mental and moral excellencies, rare personal charms, and a disposition which has made her proverbial for amiability. We congratulate our young friend on his success, and with other friends extend our sincerest wishes to the young couple, that health, happiness and prosperity may attend them all through their matrimonial pilgrimage.

FIRST CIVIL RIGHTS SUIT.

Boston Laney Sues a Hotel Proprietor.

Boston Laney, a gentleman of color, hailing from Staunton, Va., entered suit in the U. S. Court against the proprietor of the St. Cloud hotel of this city, alleging that the proprietor had refused him accommodations. Summons was issued returnable on the first monday of May next. The penalty for the violation of this law is $500. He was refused admittance to the St. Nicholas also, but he did not bring action against it. Both proprietors say that they remember him coming in, and being informed that they were full, he went away. However, he returned to the St. Cloud with another party, also colored, and again demanded accommodations. The proprietor replied by asking him who was running this hotel. The two then went away, and nothing more was heard of them until suit was entered against him. This being the first case of the kind in this district, its results will be watched with peculiar interest.

HOMICIDE AT BROWNSVILLE.

An Old Woman Murdered—No Clue to the Perpetrator.

Brownsville, near the head waters of the Monongahela river, is just now agitated over the murder of Mrs. Catharine Hampton, an old woman who kept a saloon in that place. The woman was found in the saloon one Monday evening with a pair of scissors in her hand, with which she had apparently been trying to cut her throat. She was unable to talk, but was conscious. She was removed to bed and physicians summoned, and on the following Monday a post mortem examination developed the fact that she had been injured by blows on the head, which were the cause of the paralysis, which occured before she died.

The Coroner has been investigating the case, but thus far has not elucidated the mystery. It was in evidence that she and her daughter sometimes quarreled, but there was no evidence of any quarrel immediately preceding the death of the mother. The whole case is wrapped in mystery, and the people are considerably excited over it. The investigation will be resumed on Saturday evening.

DEATH UNDER THE WHEELS.

James Sheridan Killed at the Federal Street Crossing—His Body Mangled in a Most Terrible Manner.

Yesterday afternoon between three and four o'clock another shocking accident occurred at the Federal street crossing of the P. Ft. W. & C. railroad, and upon the identical spot where a young man was horribly mangled only a few days ago, the circumstances being almost similar. The unfortunate victim, James Sheridan, attempted to board the Wellsville accommodation as it passed, and missing his footing, fell under the wheels, and was crushed into a shapeless mass. Several cars passed over his body, and had it not been for his clothing it would have been almost impossible to have known that the bloody scraps had ever belonged to a human being. The young man was a resident of Baden, and for some time has been in the employ of the road.

Coroner McCallin was notified and went to hold an inquest, but owing to the difficulty in getting the witnesses, postponed it until this evening at eight o'clock. A jury was impaneled and viewed the remains as they lay in a box at the undertaker's, on Ohio street. Will not these two sad warnings put a stop to the recklessness indulged in at the railroad crossings in this city?

ONCE AGAIN TO THE FORE.

Bleeding a Butler County Man—Fleeced Out of $500.

The same old confidence game was played again on Wednesday, and the man who was taken in was Samuel Miller, a farmer who lives near Unionville, in Butler county. He was fleeced out of five hundred dollars by two sharpers, who gave the names of J. H. Williams and James Pitts. They became acquainted with their victim some days ago at his residence, when they drew for him an entrancing picture of the money to be made from stock speculation. They told him there was millions in it, and he believed it then, but don't now. They induced him to come to Pittsburgh, and getting him into Ruckheim's saloon, on Sixth street, they asked him how much money he had to buy certain stocks they wished to sell. He said $500, and drew it out. Pitts took the money, put it in his pocket, and then went out with Miller to get a drink. They walked around town awhile when Pitts returned a package to Miller and told him he had not enough money to purchase the stock. Miller soon after left on the train for home, and when nearly there he examined the package which Pitts had given him and found it to be nothing but a roll of paper wrapped with a five and two one dollar greenbacks. He returned to the city yesterday and told his story to the Chief of Police, but the jig was up and Williams and Pitts have not been found, nor are they likely to be.

THE LINDSAY PERJURY TRIAL.

One of the Results of the McAfee Scott Breach of Promise Case.

Yesterday the Criminal Court room was again jammed with a curious crowd to hear the testimony in the case of Robert H. Lindsay, charged with having committed perjury by swearing falsely in the McAfee-Scott breach of promise case, tried recently. During that trial he testified that on the 11th of last September he met Mrs. McAfee on the street, in this city, and entered into a conversation with her. She told him that she wanted to go West, but that she had no money to pay her expenses. To this he replied that if she would cease the proceedings in the breach of promise case against Mr. Scott he would furnish her fifty dollars. She consented to this arrangement, he stated, and the next day he met her by appointment in Hauch's drug store, with a written article agreeing that she would withdraw all proceedings in the breach of promise case, and release Mr. Scott from all claims she had against him. She could not write her name, but fixed her mark to the document, and was paid the fifty dollars.

Mrs. McAfee made an information charging him with perjury, and on the stand yesterday testified that she had never seen Lindsay previous to the day of trial of her case in the Common Pleas No. 2, when she saw him on the witness stand; that she went to Brilliant station about the first of September 1874, to the house of Mr. Morrow, and remained there until the 16th of the same month; that from the time she went there until the 16th, she was positive that she never was in the city of Pittsburgh. She was certain that she was at Brilliant station from the 7th to the 16th of September. She positively denied that she had ever received the fifty dollars or signed any paper.

Mr. Barton her counsel in the breach of promise case, was then called and corroborated her evidence, after which the relatives with whom she was alleged to have been stopping at the time, were called, and testified that on the day she was alleged to have signed the document she was at their house out of the city.

Mr. Hauch testified that he had no recollection whatever of any persons coming into his drug store to sign any papers, and he was sure that he could not have been out as he had no clerk at the time referred to but was doing all of his own work.

The defense produced two witnesses, Mrs. Newbell and Miss Overhill who testified that Mrs. McAfee told them that she had received money and signed the paper. This gives a chance for another perjury case. The case is still on trial.

In Sewickley no such publication was made, and this circumstance, and that no notice was given him whatever, is the ground on which the Judge stands in refusing payment.

····Yesterday morning the Board of Engineers connected with the Ohio river improvement, consisting of General H. G. Wright, Gen. O. M. Poe, Gen. G. Weitzel, Col. Wm. E. Merrill and Lieut. F. Mahon, were in conference at the Monongahela House with the Improvement Commissioners, Messrs. J. K. Moorehead, George H. Thurston and Joseph Walton, Esqs., and an informal discussion took place relative to the report to be made to the Secretary of War, upon the application of the $100,000 appropriated by Congress for the construction of a movable dam on the Ohio river. The Commissioners examined the plans of the engineers and were entirely satisfied with the same. Nothing definite was done, however, the session being occupied with informal discussion.

····The County Treasurer has received an opinion from the Attorney General of the State, and also from County Solicitor Geyer, to the effect that the new liquor bill does not affect the mode of granting licenses in the county, and on Monday next the County Treasurer will proceed to grant the licenses. The only question which seems to be unsettled, but about which there is little doubt in the minds of the county authorities is in regard to the application of the liquor license fund. By special law for some time past one-fourth of it has been handed over to the State and the other three-fourths applied to the Work House. There is nothing in the bill which conflicts with this special law, and consequently the same application of the funds, no doubt, will be made as heretofore.

····A Can-Can troupe from this city recently gave a performance at Millerstown, in the oil region, and their reception on the opening night was so warm, the audience was so demonstrative in its manifestations of disgust, that it was deemed best not to repeat the show. The festive patrons of amusements in the oleaginous district have a peculiar method of displaying their dissatisfaction if the performance fails to reach their high standard. They provide themselves with small paper sacks filled with flour, and, by a peculiar backward jerk of the arm, are enabled to throw the contents entirely across a room of pretty fair size. On the night in question the entertainment was thought discreditable. A hundred sacks or more were brought into requisition, and the residents of Millerstown demonstrated the appropriateness of its name by covering with flour every performer who appeared on the stage.

PERSONAL.

We are pleased to learn that Rev. Alexander Clarke, editor of the Methodist Recorder has returned from his Southern trip in improved health.

Chief Justice Agnew, who has been absent, at Philadelphia, during most of the winter, presiding over the State Supreme Court, returned to his home in Beaver last week.

Lieut. J. E. H. Foster, who spent the winter foraging in Florida for the sake of his health, arrived home yesterday. He will leave on Monday to join his regiment on the frontier.

Senator Rutan, who has been quite unwell in Philadelphia for a week or two past, returned home last Thursday morning. Although not in good health yet, his condition is improved considerably.—Beaver Argus and Radical.

Mr. John Palmer, former editor of the Steubenville News, was presented last week by his wife with triplets—making an increase in his family of five within a period of little more than a year. That is good enough certainly for a one-legged soldier editor.

We regret exceedingly to have to announce to our readers the death of John Lindsay, Esq., a worthy and estimable gentleman, who was for twenty years a resident of this city and deeply interested in its prosperity. He was connected with the city flour mills, being of the firm of "Legget & Lindsay." He was a gentleman of honor and integrity, and always maintained an unblemished character. To his many relatives in this city we extend our sincere sympathy.

THE MILLERSTOWN FIRE.

The Work of Incendiaries—Suspected Parties Arrested.

The people of Millerstown are excited over the discovery that their $100,000 fire the other day was the work of incendiaries, and A. Marks and A. Levi, have been arrested on suspicion of being the guilty parties. The former is one of the firm of Rosenburg & Marks, dry goods dealers, and the latter a clerk in the store. The stories told by these parties it seems do not hang together properly, and there are other suspicious circumstances. Marks, for instance, claims to have lost $15,000, while competent judges say his stock was not worth more than $5,000 at the highest estimate. Further information elicited the fact that the conflagrations at Modoc and Greece City were both traceable to the store of the man Marks; that many promissory notes of Rosenburg & Marks had recently gone to protest; that the safe door was left open on the night of the fire and the contents entirely destroyed, so that it will prove utterly impossible to show the reduction of the stock by recent sales; the removal of dry goods from the residence of the man Marks when it was threatened with fire, thus leading to the conclusion that he had transferred portions of his stock from his store to his dwelling in anticipation of the fire. The statement of the man Levi, who was a clerk with Rosenburg & Marks, that he could not tell whether there was any fire in Bluestein's or not, and his contradiction by an equally positive declaration that there was no light there; his refusal to answer any questions and his statement that it was nobody's business; his further statement that he had hardly time enough to save his life, and that his shoes were burned before he could seize them, which story was flatly contradicted by parties who saw him completely dressed, including shirt, collar and neck-tie; all these facts seem to indicate that an investigation of the conflicting statements would be worth while. The investigation takes place next Tuesday.

THE SECOND ASSEMBLY.

Preparations Being Made For It—A Grand Gathering Anticipated.

It is quite likely that a goodly delegation of Sunday school workers from this section will be in attendance at the Second Assembly to be held at Fair Point, Lake Chautauqua, next Summer, and the indications are that this second gathering will be a great success. The other day the Executive Committee held a meeting at Erie, to make preliminary arrangements, and decided upon several new features. Among these will be a Tabernacle that will convey to the mind of one an exact idea of the old Jewish structure. "Palestine" will be extended and rearranged, so as to render its geographical features as perfect as possible. There will be an oriental house built, with all its Eastern characteristics, and a miniature Egyptian Pyramid, perfect in all its internal as well as its external details, which will assist in a correct understanding of those wonderful works of antiquity. The boating accommodations are also being increased. There are many other improvements which have been suggested and will be carried on to completion in time. A very important one is that accommodations for visitors will be multiplied, that all can find a place to sojourn. The committee meet again at Fair Point on the 4th of May.

Matrimonial.

At the residence of Mrs. Catharine Jackson, No. 92 Centre avenue, Thursday evening, Mr. Hugh M. Boyd to Miss Katie V. Jackson.

Many friends congratulate our young friend on the selection of so estimable a lady to share with him the blisses of wedded life. May she ever cling to him like ivy to the rock, and their journey over the matrimonial sea be pleasant to the end.

POTTER'S COMPLETE BIBLICAL ENCYCLOPEDIA. Edited by Rev. Wm. Blackwood, D.D., LL.D. Published by John E. Potter & Co., Philadelphia.

We have before noticed "Potter's Complete Bible Encyclopedia," edited by Rev. William Blackwood, D.D., LL.D., author of "Blackwood's Comprehensive Aids to the Study of the Holy Bible," etc., etc. This encyclopedia is issued in parts, and the whole will comprehend almost a library in itself. Its illustrations are profuse and excellent. Its treatment of subjects is able and satisfactory. It has a large number of learned, able, and pious contributors. The material used and the mechanical execution of the work are altogether worthy of the high character of the work. It is published in fifty numbers, twenty-four of which have been issued. The work is being well done, and when complete it will be one of the best works of its class extant.

CONDITIONS OF SUCCESS IN PREACHING WITHOUT NOTES. Three Lectures, delivered before the Students of the Union Theological Seminary, New York, January 13, 20, 27, 1875, with an Appendix by R. S. Storrs, D. D., LL.D., of Brooklyn, New York. Published by Dodd & Mead, New York. For sale in Pittsburgh by R. S. Davis & Co.

There are two classes of people who will read this book with keenest pleasure. First, the representatives of the cloth to whom it is addressed, who will find it a rich treasure-house of practical suggestions—a very mine of wealth. The second class will be that large array who find delight in "English undefiled," to whom the strong and glowing and compact sentences, abounding in all the beauties of the richest fancy, united to the most practical and forcible logic, will be read with relish from the commencement to the close of the book.

THE HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF THE EMPEROR CHARLES V. By Wm. Robertson, D. D. With an Account of the Emperor's Life After the Abdication. By Wm. H. Prescott. New edition. Vol. 3. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale in Pittsburgh by R. S Davis & Co.

This is the last volume of the series concerning Charles the VV., and is in all respects equal to what has preceded it. The volume closes the career of Charles, and in it there is given a summary of his character, that is about as complete and comprehensive as the pen of Prescott has ever written on any subject. This uniform series of Prescott's works is the most beautiful that has ever been published for the library.

VICTOR LA TOURETTE; A novel by a Broad Churchman. Published by Roberts Bros., Boston. For sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co.

This is a sort of autobiographical novel in which the writer tells the story of a young clergyman of liberal views, and the persecutions he endured. The story is well written, and discusses in an entertaining and thoughtful way some of the great elements of the true Christian's belief. The theology of the book in some minor particulars is opposed to the creeds of the churches, but the essentials as to the Divinity of Christ, The Atonement, Free Salvation, Free Agency, &c., are all maintained, and with considerable vigor and freshness of thought. It will be read with close attention by the devout reader.

A LIFE'S SECRET: A story of Woman's Revenge. By Mrs. Henry Wood. Published by T. B. Peterson & Bro., Philadelphia, and for sale in Pittsburgh by J. R. Weldin & Co.

Those who have read any of Mrs. Wood's novels will find the same elements of interest in this one.

HON. JOHN CAREY, who died recently at his residence in Wyandott county, once made a speech against counties and towns subscribing to the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne Railroad, in which he said that "no road can ever run through cars from Pittsburgh to Chicago, as the friction of the wheels will cause them to burn up."

The Signs of Health.

Health invariably declares itself by visible signs. A person with a sallow, haggard visage and attenuated frame may declare that he is "in perfect health," but, if it does, don't believe him, for he is not. His looks belie him, and his asseveration is mere bravado. Few persons, except hypochondriacs, desire to be thought unwell. A fresh complexion, a clear eye, a happy expression, and an absence of leanness, indicate that their possessor enjoys good digestion, sound sleep and a vigorous circulation, three essentials of health which are fortunately not beyond the reach of invalids. The surest medium for their attainment is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which by purifying the blood banish sallowness, and by promoting perfect digestion and sound sleep, keep the body well nourished, and impart to the face the placid expression indicative of a clear and unwearied mind. The Bitters are far more conducive to good looks than any cosmetic that ever humbugged the credulous.

The Theatre at Ephesus.

Mr. Wood, the recent explorer of Ephesus, describes the theatre as one of the largest in Asia Minor, being four hundred and ninety-five feet in diameter, and capable of seating 24,500 persons—equal to about three Albert Halls. In it were found many interesting Greek and a few Latin inscriptions, chiefly decrees of the Senate and people, and also some sculpture. Here was also found the Solutarian inscription—decrees relating to gold and silver images voted to Diana, by C. Vibius Salutarius, which on certain days were carried in procession from the temple to the theatre and back again. Mr. Wood referred to the uproar in this theatre occasioned by Demetrius, the silversmith, in opposition to St. Paul's preaching (Acts xix.): and he suggested that the statue which was said to have fallen down from Jupiter might have been a large ærolite, carved by a sculptor. Near the Odeum or Lyric Theatre, Mr. Wood found remains of a tomb, which he believed to be that of St. Luke, apparently a circular building fifty feet in diameter, standing in a quadrangle one hundred and fifty feet across, surrounded by a colonnade. Among the buildings near was the woolfactor's hall, or market, somewhat resembling our Royal Exchange.
